Chairman's Message

As the schedule is being delivered to your door, we are still busy finalising the detail of this year's Show. Please keep the schedule in a safe place so you can use it on the day to find everything on offer. We hope you will find something to tempt you to enter this year, whether it is that special vegetable or flower you have been cultivating or a piece of craft that you are very proud of! Please enter and share with everyone – this is your village show, without your exhibits we will not have a show. If everyone in the village entered one class, we would have a fantastic show. So please think about entering this year, helping to make this year's show the best ever!

We are very pleased to announce that Keith and Eleanor Giles will present the prizes at 4pm. This will be followed by "Mary's Grand Raffle" which as some of you will know, is named after our former President, Mrs Mary McEwen-Smith MBE.

With our celebrations last year for our 70th anniversary, we did not take time to celebrate another milestone. Our Patron Scheme is now over 20 years since inception. One cannot explain how important this level of support has been to the Committee in this time. We would like to thank each and every one of you for continuing to support YOUR village show.

This year, as before, the show will open at 12.30pm. We hope to open the marquee at this time but if there is a small delay please note that the Women's Institute will be serving teas and coffees from this time in the Village Hall and you should be able to partake of the Hog roast too.

Thank you

Ann

Mice

*I think mice
Are rather nice*

*Their tails are long,
Their faces small,
They haven't any,
Chins at all.
Their ears are pink,
Their teeth are white,
They run about
The house at night.
They nibble things
They shouldn't touch
And no one seems
To like them much.*

*But I think mice
Are nice.*

Granny

*Through every nook and every cranny
The Wind blew in on poor old Granny;
Around her knees, into each ear
(And up her nose as well, I fear).*

*All through the night the wind grew worse,
It nearly made the vicar curse.
The top had fallen off the steeple
Just missing him (and other people).*

*It blew on man; it blew on beast.
It blew on nun; it blew on priest.
It blew the wig off Auntie Fanny –
But most of all, it blew on Granny!*
