Chairman's Message 2019

Well, as I write this, the temperature has dropped outside and we may be due some snow! Not very conducive for growing flowers and vegetables but I do hope that the weather is kinder to us this year and you are able to get all your planting and growing done successfully.

We had a very successful show last year and the day was very bright and sunny. Many enjoyed the hog roast, the bar, the Pimms bar, the teas and all the craft and field stalls.

Our thanks, as always, goes to Tickenham WI for supporting us with their refreshments and to all our helpers who maintained the Flower Show stalls for us. Without these wonderful helpers, our show would not be able to go on. If you think you could spare an hour or two on Show day to help in this way, please let me know.

We were entertained by Portishead Concert Band and were very pleased that Nailsea Rock Choir came and sang for us too. They liked our show so much, they are coming back and singing for us again in 2019.

This year, as before, the show will open at 12.30pm. We hope to open the marquee at this time but if there is a small delay please note that the WI will be serving teas, coffees and warmed quiche in the Village Hall. You should also be able to purchase from our new hog roast provider alongside our Beer tent and Pimms bar.

Some housekeeping: Should there need to be an evacuation from the show, whether from the field or the hall, please follow instructions from our stewards who will be easily identified at this time.

For those using the Car Park adjacent to the Golf Course. Please follow the instructions from our car parking stewards. Again, these stewards will be readily identified at the time.

Thank you

Ann - Chairman/Show Secretary

106. Two 454g (1lb) jars set honey (Creamed or Naturally Crystallised).
107. One standard 225g (8oz) container of cut-comb minimum gross weight 200g (7oz)
108. One shallow comb of honey suitable for extracting. Presented in a frame showcase glazed on both sides.
109. Three 28g (1oz) approximate beeswax blocks, all uniform shape. Presented on a flat card in either a show case or clear plastic bag.
110. One Honey Cake made to the show recipe below. The cake is to be displayed on a plain white paper plate in a clear polythene bag.
200g (7oz) self-raising flour, 175g (6oz) liquid honey, 110g (4oz) soft brown sugar, 140g (5oz) butter or margarine, 2 medium sized eggs, 1 tablespoon of water.
Place butter, sugar, honey and water in a saucepan and heat until butter has melted, stirring all the time. When the butter has melted, remove pan from the heat and allow contents to cool to blood temperature. Gradually beat in the eggs, add sieved flour and mix until smooth (do not over mix). Turn into a greased and lined 6.5 to 7.5 inch diameter cake tin. Preheat the oven to 180C/350F/gas mark 4. Bake for 1 hour, or until risen and firm to the touch. Cover the top, if necessary, to prevent browning too much. Leave to cool in the tin for 5 minutes and then turn out onto a wire rack until cool. Cooking time and temperature may vary to suit the type of oven used so have a trial run before competition day.

Snowball

*I made myself a snowball
As perfect as could be.
I thought I'd keep it as a pet
And let it sleep with me.
I made it some pyjamas
And a pillow for its head.
Then last night it ran away,
But first it wet the bed.*

Books

*My best friend is a book that doesn't give me a weird look.
It is like a golden door
that takes me to the land where I have never been before.
It tells me the tales of a fairy that takes me to the land full of merry.
Some books are boring like history,
which is like a big mystery.
Books are the source of enlightenment
That vanquish darkness and fill our life with brightness.*

The Moon

*The moon has a face like the clock in the hall:
She shines on thieves on the garden wall,
On streets and fields and harbour quays,
And birdies asleep in the forks of the trees.*

*The squalling cat and the squeaking mouse,
The howling dog by the door of the house,
The bat that lies in the bed at noon,
All love to be out by the light of the moon.*

*But all of the things that belong to the day
Cuddle to sleep to be out of her way;
And flowers and children close their eyes
Till up in the morning the sun shall arise.*
